Part A. Symbolize the following sentences in the blanks provided. Use the indicated predicate letters, relation letters, and name letters.

\[
P = \text{person}, \quad R = _\text{has read}_, \quad s = \text{Shakespeare}, \quad r = \text{Romeo and Juliet}
\]

1. Shakespeare wrote \textit{Romeo and Juliet}.

2. \textit{Romeo and Juliet} is a book, written by Shakespeare.

3. Shakespeare wrote some books.

4. Some person wrote \textit{Romeo and Juliet}.

5. \textit{Romeo and Juliet} is a book, written by some person.

6. \textit{Romeo and Juliet} has been read by every person.

7. Some people have not read \textit{Romeo and Juliet}, a book written by Shakespeare.

8. \textit{Romeo and Juliet} is a book that has been read by every person.

9. Something has written something.

10. Some person has written nothing.

11. Some person wrote some book.

12. Some person has read all books.

>> continued on back side >>
13. No person has read all books.

15. Some books have been read by every person.

16. Some books have been read by no person.

17. Some people have read whatever Shakespeare wrote.

18. Whatever a person has written, he has also read.